In Memory of

The Revd Bryce JOHNSTON, D.D, Minister of Holywood, who departed this life April 27th 1805 in the 59th year of his age and 34th of his ministry

He was endued with intellectual powers uncommonly sound and vigorous and possessed a heart susceptible of the most sincere and ardent affection

He was firm and intrepid in maintaining the good order and peace of his native land and the constitution and purity of the church

Depth of research and soundness of principle distinguish his works, by which though dead, he still speaketh

Zealous for the salvation of souls he boldly declared the whole council of God

Long had he felt on his heart and exemplified by his own conduct the power of the Gospel, and when visited by that sickness which proved speedily unto death, he attested its truth and in full assurance of hope, was enabled to say, "I know that as to me to live hath been Christ, so to died will be gain"
