

To His Excellency Sir Peregrine Maitland Kt. G. B. Lieut. Governor of the Province of Upper Canada & Major General Commanding His Majesty's Forces therein Believe me

The Petition of Andrew Johnstone of Scarborough, and Francis Johnstone of the same place, Grievous Sheweth.

That your Petitioners are sons of Robert Johnstone of Scarborough an Emigrant from Scotland 10 years ago.
That your Petitioner Andrew has a family of a wife and one child. That they have not, either of your Petitioners, received any Land from the Crown, and being desirous to become Settlers on the waste Lands of the Crown in this Province they humbly pray your Excellency to grant to each of them such portion of Land as a Settler as your Excellency may deem meet your Petitioners pray further to state that they are, your Petitioner Andrew, 22 years, and Francis 27 years of age? and your Petitioners will ever pray.
