

SCHOOL BOARD URGED TO SELL 10 AUSTIN ACRES

Committee Recommends Retail
Deals After Hearing
Much Advice.

At an open meeting of the buildings and grounds committee of the board of education yesterday action was taken recommending that the board subdivide two acres of its "Austin tract" and sell the land at retail.

The action followed numerous suggestions on the question. At two of them real estate men, attorneys and contractors have been called in by the board for advice. A special committee had recommended to lease the property for thirty years for residence purposes. All the men who spoke advised against leasing the property.

Land a Mile Square.
The land is a mile square, bounded by Madison and Twelfth streets, Ohio and Central avenues. It was acquired with the annexation of Chicago. According to Richard J. Collins, it is worth about $1,000,000. The cost of putting in improvements is estimated to be about $200,000.

The recommendation to sell ten acres of the land at retail will have to go before the regular buildings and grounds committee on Friday and the board next Wednesday. If it is approved it will then go to the city council for approval.

John J. Sweeney opposed the proposition. He is the number one active in the effort to have the board adopt a policy of holding all its school fund property and leasing it for residence purposes where not available for business sites.

Those Who Opposed Plan.
Among the men not on the board who spoke against the proposal are Attorney Clayton Crafts, C. H. Holden, vice president of the Union Trust company; George J. Taylor, president of the Chicago real estate board; Richard W. Wolfe of the Cook county real estate board; and Frederick S. Oliver.

A committee, consisting of Callistus R. Jones, H. A. Mauntain, Joseph Dennerberger, and Mr. Wolfe, which had been requested to inspect the property, reported against leasing for residence purposes. Mr. Wolfe, in a letter to the board, said the trouble between England and Ireland, the revolution in Mexico, and much of the misery of the United States is due to such a policy.

BEAT AND ROB HIM OF $150.
Robbers Attack William Whitman, Grain Dealer, at Sedgwick and Oak Streets.

William Whitman of 1102 Huron street, a hay and grain dealer, was severely beaten and robbed of $150 yesterday by two men at Sedgwick and Oak streets.

BOARD OF TRADE EXPELS BROKER JAMES EVANS

Pittsburgh Man Accused of Making False Reports on Deals to Patrons.

James Evans, a prominent stock broker of Pittsburgh, was expelled from the Chicago board of trade yesterday by action of the directors. Evans was a member of the firm of Evans Bros. and stock commission merchant in the Boardman-Tress building at Pittsburgh.

It was charged Evans had made fictitious reports of trades to customers. It is understood that he is a member of the Pittsburgh stock exchange, but not of the New York stock exchange. He has been a member of the local board of trade for several years.

Many Open Chances.
In the active market of the last few months there have been, it is said, many opportunities for making false reports on trades owing to wide fluctuations. The Chicago board of trade has been endeavoring for several years to weed out from its membership those guilty of any fraudulent practices, and several members recently have been expelled or suspended.

Nonmember Firms Suspended.
The Chicago board of trade takes the stand that firms doing business in stocks or grain and not being members of the exchange must be liable to suspension as not being entitled to the regular communications, their compensation must come from other sources.

Recent activities of the board of trade have resulted in closing up the last large bucket shop system of the east and middle west. The Chicago board of trade and the New York stock exchange struck a death blow at the bucket shops when they refused to permit members of other exchanges to accept bucket orders from the bucket shops. One of the leading bucket shops in the east with headquarters at Buffalo was compelled to close a short time ago on this account.

BRING UP PLATE OF MAINE.
Anchor of Steamer Ponis Wreckage of United States Battleship in Havana Harbor.

HAVANA, Cuba, Nov. 2.—The anchor of the steamer Espartero of the United Fruit Steamship company's White Fleet today brought up a side plate of the battleship Maine from the bottom of the Havana harbor. The plate of the anchor entered a porthole of the sunken ship and held so fast that the crew had to use a steel winch to remove the plate from the anchor.

Born Balk at Hermit Inquest.
Charles Whitman and Joseph P. Marsh, charged by the police to have confessed to the murder of Joseph Whitman, the hermit, refused to testify at the inquest yesterday, waiting expectantly for their counsel. Their legal confessions, however, were read to the jury.

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT & Co.

The Prevailing Modes Demand
This New "Diana" High
Boot for Women
$6 the Pair.

Higher, to match the shorter skirt, mounts this newest boot decreed the most correct of feminine footwear today.

The famed huntress of antiquity graciously bestows upon it her name and its distinction. The well-dressed woman of today has given it the hall-mark of her approval. Now—

We Offer These Extra-High Laced
Boots With Leather Lous Street
Heels in Five Different Leathers.

The first style (at the right) may be had in all patent leather and in all black kid.

The second style (at the left) may be had in blue kid, dull kid and in bronze kid.

Great vogue is assured these boots, and we are indeed fortunate to be able to offer them at their very introduction for $6 the pair.

Third Floor, South Room.

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT & Co.

Fashion's Latest Word in
Fur Coats and Fur Sets

This means the presentation today of a unique collection of furs—wide in range of mode—but each garment individualized in design.

Women seeking the distinctive and exclusive will find it admirably represented here. By way of example—

The Coat of Hudson Seal With Bandings of Natural Bear (Sketched)

Fashioned upon youth-giving lines, rippling and graceful and in the correct length to conform to this style, 30 inches. $245.

This group offers other unusual styles at $150, $165, $200.

Hudson seal coats at $75, $85, to $350.

Hudson seal coats, fur-trimmed, at $125, $140, to $400.

Unusualities in Fur Sets—

Sets of Fisher Fur at $115, $135, to $200, present an early choice in a fur for which vogue will soon create a great demand, it is said.

Sets of Battleship Gray Fox and of Dyed Blue Fox, exquisitely worked pelts, at $95, $115 and to $225.

Sets of Natural and Blue Lynx at $60 and $75.

Fourth Floor, North Room.

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT & Co.

For Mid-Winter Millinery Is Introduced—
Picturesque Flower Hats
$15 to $25

Variedness surely dwells in these millinery sections.

Scarcely a day goes by without seeing a new and charming mode launched.

But of all the many sponsored by these sections none is more charming and irresistible than

These Flower Trimmed Hats Whose Rare Becomingness Assures Them a Most Delightful Welcome

Imagine a host of tiny pink roses clustering about the crown of a small, lustrous velvet turban. Every royal shade of purple is reflected in a "dahlia" hat.

Grapes of a gauzy iridescence glitter on a high-crowned hat. American beauty roses and seal fur compose another of these hats, and still another is aglow with gorgeous shades of yellow and golden browns.

These New Collections Include Both Dress and Street Hats and Offer Interestingly New Variations of the Close, Small Turban.

Fifth Floor, South Room.

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT & Co.

A Late Shipment Brings—
The Newest Models in Imported Sappho Corsets
At $8.50, $10 and $12.50

This is the last of this season's shipments, and its arrival at this very opportune time enables us to announce that

The Assortments of These Imported "Sappho" Corsets Are Now Absolutely Complete and Comprehensive.

It means further that now is the best time to select your individual style while this splendid variety is offered.

We Particularly Specialize Upon—

Practical, beautifully-made "Sappho" corsets of coutil at $8.50, $10 and $12.50.

No cumbersome, superfluous trimming is allowed to detract from the tailored perfection of these corsets. Three are sketched, each an individualized model.

Especially interesting is the corset (sketched at the right) for the stout figure beginning at size 28 and up to 40.

Worthy of note are the new French

Brassieres of Fillet Lace with Linen at $4.50

In the style sketched here at the left. Splendid in its sheer and dainty.

Third Floor, North Room.

Mandel Brothers

NOVEMBER is apron time—suit yourself as to the time to wear aprons—but the time to buy them is now—the proof well presented in this noted November sale.

Bungalow aprons, 50c

—the three styles here illustrated—in solid blue or pink chambray, and trimmed with black or white striped trimming; long ties and two pockets. 48 floor.

Middy aprons, 50c Coat aprons, 50c
—in light colors, with striped down the sides; trimmed with pink or blue chambray; two pockets. 48 floor.

Maids' striped or plain blue chambray dresses, 1.50

Maids' black mohair dresses specially priced at 3.95

HAVING given them notably "different character," and having made them under "saving circumstances," we are able to assure that there is utmost value in these suits and coats at $35.

Wool velour suits at $35

—hudson seal trimming

The velour in black, navy, green or plum shade. The jacket trimmed and sub-lined.

Large collar of hudson seal fur and in new design. Deep bands of hudson seal at cuffs and around entire bottom. Fourth floor.

Mandel Brothers

New section on 6th floor

—introducing the most interesting bird cage and aquarium exhibits in town

Extra special—24-in. wicker bird cage

—the new "Vogue" design—complete with 75-inch standard—as illustrated here—fox $10.

Dress bird cages at Encased and decorated in 16.50; brass rail and mesh, 18.50; standards to $20; mesh, 18.50 to $20; 24-in. wicker standards to match, $1 to $2.50.

Hand-decorated aquariums to order

—style to match the furnishings in your home—or likely we have the desired style in stock. With or without standards. Prices $3 to $25.

Sixth floor.

In Mandel Brothers' Subway tomorrow:

1000 winter coats, 16.75

—many fur-trimmed—many satin-lined, forty excellent styles; women's and misses' sizes.

Winter topcoats at $35

—these in two styles and of fine quality heavy velour cloth, in black, navy or brown.

Chin-chin collar of beaver or skunk-opossum fur; both models interlined, and lined throughout with peau de cygne silk. Fourth floor.

Look for This Tribune Sign

If you want the best things ever sold in Grocery Stores or Drug Stores

—not the most expensive things, but the best quality products at reasonable prices—look in Grocers' and Drug-gists' windows for this Tribune Sign

If you want products of such high quality that their makers are not afraid to back them up with their reputations and with advertising, products that are sure to give you the highest service and satisfaction, products that in the long run are the most economical no matter what the price—if you want to buy products like that, look for this Tribune Sign, hanging in the windows of high grade Grocery Stores and Drug Stores all over Chicago.

FIVE OTHERS ARE ARRESTED.

Communication Blames Man
Who Surrendered Last Night to Police.

FIVE OTHERS ARE ARRESTED.

THE TRIBUNE received an anonymous letter last evening from a man who stated he was an eye-witness to the murder of "Ham" Hugh Coogan, said to be a moving picture union slugger, who was shot to death late Sunday night at Justice and Fifty-first streets.

The letter charges "Spike" O'Donnell with the shooting. O'Donnell gave himself up last night, on advice of his attorney, Francis Borrelli. The attorney is authority for the statement that O'Donnell will, in due time, produce an alibi.

The letter follows:

A little dope on the shooting match at Fifty-first and Justice streets Sunday night. Spike O'Donnell is the guy that shot Ham Coogan.

Called Boss Blugger.
Spike O'Donnell was boss over the sluggers for the moving picture union. Friday night he got $200 from the union. He went to see Sam Hays, Ed McMahon, and Misch Tureaux $40 apiece for their share and they refused it. This was the last of his money.

Words brought a fight. Misch hit Spike and Spike hit Hays and Spike hit Misch. So it was "I get you or you get me" nature.

One day he was in the car with the first and Ashland avenue they weren't in a limousine when they got out of the saloon about 11 o'clock p. m. Spike was in the car with the first and Ashland avenue. He pulled out two guns and fired at the limousine and said "I'll kill the whole bunch."

The day after Spike shot at Ashland got one of the guns. Spike threw it away because it wouldn't shoot. I don't know what's the matter with the present day. I don't know if he's afraid of Spike; he always has a gun.

From one who saw the whole thing;

Police Call Facts True.
When shown the letter last evening a high police official said the facts contained therein were true.

A few hours later they arrested Nicholas Thibaux, brother of the man for whom the letter was being searched. With Nicholas Thibaux, who formerly was a moving picture operator, they took Hugh Shanley, alias Young Shanley.

On Saturday morning the police again arrested three men, William and James Moriarty, 4735 South Marshfield avenue, and Thomas Ferris, 6385 South Ashland avenue, who were charged with the crime. The three, the police say, were gambling with Coogaz just before he was

The murder is the result of labor trouble," said Capt. Caughlin. "Both Coogan and O'Donnell worked as slugs for Motion Picture Operators' union No. 10. O'Donnell's gang frequently got into scrapes with a rival slugger's gang, that of union No. 57.

As I understand it, union No. 10 is the same as the International Brotherhood of Motion Picture Operators, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor; No. 57 is connected with the electrical workers' union. There has been a dispute between the two unions for some time. I think we can connect this shooting up with the dynamiting of the Boston store last week. That was the work of labor slugs."

Lieut. James Mooney, with a squad from the detective bureau, worked all

Fight Nearly Every Week.
 "I am satisfied," said Lieut. Mooney, "that the murder was a result of a long-standing feud between the two gangs. It is a fight between rival slaugher for these rival unions. THE TRIBUNE's letter is borne out by our investigation."
 Coogan lived at 4811 Broadway street. He was employed as a bartender in a loop saloon until a few months ago.
 He was standing at Jurine and Fifty-fifth streets and at 4811 Broadway street before he was shot down. As the men turned to leave one of them fired three shots at Coogan. The men then fled through a lot and escaped.

"DOPE" PATIENT TO AID
MRS. BRITTON'S CAMPAIGN.

Accountant Just Finishing Cure
Offers to Help Convict Sellers of Narcotic in City.

An accountant who is completing a four month "dope feed" course of treatment at the Dunning asylum has proffered his aid to Mrs. Gertrude Howe Britton, chief of the County Social Service bureau, in procuring the conviction of vendors of narcotics.

The woman whose name Mrs. Britton is holding secret, wrote a letter to her after he had read a story in last Thursday's TRIBUNE about a conference of folk interested in the drug question in which conference Mrs. Britton had voiced belief that the County Court drug sale has not halted the sale of drugs in Chicago.

Mrs. Britton proposes to procure from the Dunning inmate a list of places in

"I have used Peruna, opium, etc., continuously for almost a decade, and have never experienced the slightest difficulty in satisfying the craving." sh 5100